From Father's Desk

Tomorrow is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a Holy Day of Obligation in the United States. As a holy day, we will have a Mass in each parish to provide opportunities for everyone to attend. As our U.S. patronal feast, the obligation is not lifted even though it's on Monday. Mass times are:

Mon, Dec 8	St. Patrick, LeRoy	8:30 am
Mon, Dec 8	St. Ignatius, Spring Valley	12:10 pm
Mon, Dec 8	St. Finbarr, Grand Meadow	6:15 pm

I mentioned last weekend at the Sunday Masses that Bishop Barron has released his pastoral letter which was the culmination of the Diocesan Synod on Evangelization and Vocations. It is 14 pages, but it reads very quickly. I encourage you to read it. You can find it on the www.dowr.org website. I believe copies will be provided at Christmas time, as well, so you could wait until then if you want.

The post-synodal letter has many recommendations, but here are just a few to start with.

Bishop Barron encourages us to really focus on inviting our neighbors back to church. If you know of someone who you know is a parishioner but you haven't seen in a little while, please invite them. I know it requires some effort, and even some courage, but the Lord will provide. Fortitude is a gift of the Holy Spirit!

He likewise asks all parishes to have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament each month, if not each week, to pray for more priests. Our parishes already have this practice. However, it isn't offered on the weekend or at the most family-friendly times, so I will be looking for some extra opportunities in our parishes to provide this great devotion and time for prayer.

As well, he asks us to pray a prayer at the end of the petitions, asking the Lord to send us more priests. For your own use, it is printed here:

Heavenly Father, Giver of all good things, Your Son told us to beg You to send workers into Your rich harvest, and so we have the confidence to ask You to raise up an abundance of priests in the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. Send us good and holy men to respond to your call to lay down their lives in service to Your people. We know that the Church comes from the Eucharist and that the Eucharist comes from priests. Therefore, Gracious God, send us priests to build up Your Church, through Jesus Christ, your Son, who is High Priest and Lord, forever and ever. Amen.

In Christ,
Fr. Parrott
